

The Down Syndrome Guild of Dallas

presents

2008 IEP Clinics (Individualized Education Plan)

Saturday, February 16, 2008

One Session:
10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Region 10 Service Center
904 Abrams Road
Richardson, TX 75081

Lynn Campbell and Sidney Crim, local speech pathologists with extensive experience working with children and adults with Down syndrome, will focus on

- What language is and its relationship to learning, as well as, how those with Down syndrome learn
- Tips for communication, behavior, and school given the learning differences in individuals with Down syndrome
- The importance of requesting the necessary modifications and accommodations for IEP goals to be attainable
- How and when written language begins, how to encourage it at an early age, and specific tips for using the strengths of the child to develop written language

Saturday, March 29, 2008

One Session:
10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Region 10 Service Center
904 Abrams Road
Richardson, TX 75081

Gail Wayman, M.Ed. in special education and Board Certified Behavior Analyst, will present on the topic of developing IEPs, including writing objectives that are observable and measurable. She returns to us after rave reviews for her presentation on toilet training last year.

SPACE IS LIMITED!! RSVP is a must! Please e-mail dallasdsg@sbcglobal.net or call the DSG office at
(214) 267-1374 to confirm your reservations.