

April 2008 SAGE Brown Bag Lunch

What: "The Elementary Child and Student Success"

When: Wednesday April 30th 11:30-12:30

Where: 1300 19th St. @ Practical Parenting Offices In Bird Educational Center

The elementary years are a crucial years in a child's development. Our brown bag lunch will feature a conversation addressing ways to enhance the parent-teacher partnership when making educational decisions, including what programs are available at the elementary school level and how to find out more about these programs.

Our speaker will be Mark Wellborn, PISD Director of Professional Learning and Advanced Academics.

Come join the dialogue as we explore these important issues.
